

Once parking is started, booking message area becomes a running meter, allowing the user to always know how much their parking will end up costing. Other actions are still available.

Parking meter and payment

Once parking meter has been stopped, panel becomes a receipt view, with then confirmation of payment method (or addition of another card) made available.